

Worldwide Member Profile

Profile \(/AutomatedProfile.aspx\) | Certificate \(/AutomatedCert.aspx\)

Craig T. Maguire

Contact Craig

CEO & President

IMPRESSIONS Family Counselling Services Inc.

Years in position: 3

Years in profession: 31

Type of Business: Providing independent therapeutic counselling services and coaching programs to children/youth, adults, seniors, veterans and EMS personnel/Emergency First Responder.

Major Products and Services:

Comprehensive therapeutic counselling services and coaching programs to children and youth, adults, couples, families, seniors, veterans and emergency medical service personnel.

Marketing Area:

Municipal, Provincial, National and International

Expertise:

All areas of social work, including post-traumatic stress disorder and rehabilitation; Administration and management; Human resources and talent requisition; Quality assurance; Policy and procedures development; Training and staff development; Strategic business planning; Business and financial management; Organizational change and innovations; Professional mental health and counselling interventions and programs

Hobbies/Interests/Sports:

Traveling with his wife; Enjoying life to the fullest

Educational Background:

University educated at Lakehead University, Thunder Bay, ON, CANADA

Affiliations/Associations/Societies:

British Columbia College of Social Workers; Alberta College of Social Workers; Manitoba Institute of Registered Social Workers; Canadian Association of Registered Social Workers; Psychology Today Registered and Licensed Therapists

Charity/Volunteer Work:

Too numerous to list on this site.

What do you attribute your success to?:

He attributes his success to his expansive knowledge base, which he gained through a broad range of experiences. Additionally, Mr. Maguire is noted for his compassion, tenacity and integrity.

How did you get involved in your profession?:

He became involved in his profession because of his desire to help people, especially those in need, with the ultimate goal of providing compassionate care to all.

What do you consider to be the highlight of your career?:

In life, there are two types of people: those who make change happen, and those who wish for change to occur. His life has always been about bringing change in order to create peace, harmony, happiness and safety for all.

Where will you be in five years?:

In the coming years, Mr. Maguire intends to continue growing his newly-formed private practice business and pursuing an MBA degree.

Day-to-Day Responsibilities:

Serving as the President & CEO as well as registered social work therapist for the business; Maintaining responsibility for business development, outreach and counselling duties, in addition to executive functions as the owner; Handling community outreach

Licenses/Certifications:

Registered Professional Social Worker and Therapist; Registered Rehabilitation Professional

Extended Bio:

Mr. Maguire has worked in the health and wellness, and managerial fields for approx. 30 years. During this time, he has supported the growth and development of innovative approaches of social service delivery systems and the successful attainment of organizational goals, specifically but not limited to the nonprofit sector, in senior and executive leadership roles. He has been a practicing mental health therapist in a wide variety of social service and corporate venues, and has gained decades of experience in effective business management applications.

WORLDWIDE
WHO'S WHO

Certificate of Recognition

has been awarded to

Craig T. Maguire

Officially recognized as a valued member of Worldwide Who's Who.

Recognition for achievement in the highest order awarded by

Richard Someck

Richard Someck, Vice President, Worldwide Who's Who

date... 06/01/2015